1	(1)	Any person who has been convicted of a crime and who has not been sentenced to
2		death may be sentenced to probation, probation with an alternative sentencing plan,
3		or conditional discharge as provided in this chapter.

- 4 (2) Before imposition of a sentence of imprisonment, the court shall consider probation, 5 probation with an alternative sentencing plan, or conditional discharge. Unless the 6 defendant is a violent felon as defined in KRS 439.3401 or a statute prohibits 7 probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge, after due consideration of the 8 defendant's risk and needs assessment, nature and circumstances of the crime, and 9 the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation or conditional 10 discharge shall be granted, unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is 11 necessary for protection of the public because:
 - (a) There is substantial risk that during a period of probation or conditional discharge the defendant will commit another crime;
 - (b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by his commitment to a correctional institution; or
 - (c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.
 - (3) In the event the court determines that probation is not appropriate after due consideration of the defendant's risk and needs assessment, nature and circumstances of the crime, and the history, character, and condition of the defendant, probation with an alternative sentencing plan shall be granted unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for the protection of the public because:
 - (a) There is a likelihood that during a period of probation with an alternative sentencing plan or conditional discharge the defendant will commit a Class D or Class C felony or a substantial risk that the defendant will commit a Class B or Class A felony;

1		(b)	The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most
2			effectively by commitment to a correctional institution; or
3		(c)	A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the
4			defendant's crime.
5	(4)	The	court shall not determine that there is a likelihood that the defendant will
6		com	mit a Class C or Class D felony based upon the defendant's risk and needs
7		asse	ssment and the fact that:
8		(a)	The defendant has never been convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered an
9			Alford plea to a felony offense;
10		(b)	If convicted of, having pled guilty to, or entered an Alford plea to a felony
11			offense, the defendant successfully completed probation more than ten (10)
12			years immediately prior to the date of the commission of the felony for which
13			the defendant is now being sentenced and has had no intervening convictions,
14			pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any criminal offense during that period; or
15		(c)	The defendant has been released from incarceration for the commission of a
16			felony offense more than ten (10) years immediately prior to the date of the
17			commission of the felony for which the defendant is now being sentenced and
18			has had no intervening convictions, pleas of guilty, or Alford pleas to any
19			criminal offense during that period.
20	(5)	In r	naking a determination under subsection (4) of this section, the court may
21		dete	rmine that the greater weight of the evidence indicates that there is a likelihood
22		that	the defendant will commit a Class C or Class D felony.
23	(6)	Upo	on initial sentencing of a defendant or upon modification or revocation of
24		prob	pation, when the court deems it in the best interest of the public and the
25		defe	endant, the court may order probation with the defendant to serve one (1) of the
26		follo	owing alternative sentences:
27		(a)	To a halfway house for no more than twelve (12) months;

2			(12) months;
3		(c)	To jail for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months with or without work
4			release, community service and other programs as required by the court;
5		(d)	To a residential treatment program for the abuse of alcohol or controlled
6			substances; or
7		(e)	To any other specified counseling program, rehabilitation or treatment
8			program, or facility.
9	(7)	If d	uring the term of the alternative sentence the defendant fails to adhere to and
10		com	plete the conditions of the alternative sentence, the court may modify the terms
11		of t	he alternative sentence or may modify or revoke probation and alternative
12		sent	ence and commit the defendant to an institution.
13	(8)	In a	addition to those conditions that the court may impose, the conditions of
14		altei	rnative sentence shall include the following and, if the court determines that the
15		defe	ndant cannot comply with them, then they shall not be made available:
16		(a)	A defendant sentenced to a halfway house shall:
17			1. Be working or pursuing his or her education or be enrolled in a full-time
18			treatment program;
19			2. Pay restitution during the term of probation; and
20			3. Have no contact with the victim of the defendant's crime;
21		(b)	A defendant sentenced to home incarceration shall:
22			1. Be employed by another person or self-employed at the time of
23			sentencing to home incarceration and continue the employment
24			throughout the period of home incarceration, unless the court determines
25			that there is a compelling reason to allow home incarceration while the
26			defendant is unemployed;
27			2. Pay restitution during the term of home incarceration;
